

BEATEN TO DEATH BY GANG

*...Yet again no

A 19-YEAR-OLD LICHFIELD MAN was beaten to death with an iron bar by a gang in Lichfield on September 2. Following the attack police said they were hunting three Asians. Yet a month later where is the national outcry when a black person is murdered - Stephen Lawrence for example? Apart from coverage in the local press, there has been a virtual complete silence from the media. Michael Dooher (pictured) was attacked by a gang of four men who sprang from a car in a quiet street near Lichfield, and beaten to death with an iron bar. A friend who was with Michael was also beaten, but was able to escape and raise the alarm.

Within a few days police arrested a man for the murder, who was subsequently charged and remanded in custody. Mushtaq Khan, 25, of Yew Tree Road, Aston, Birmingham, is charged with murdering Mr. Dooher at Burntwood on September 2.

Mr. Dooher, of Whetstone Lane, Aldridge, was dead on arrival at Walsall's Manor Hospital following the vicious attack in Duke Street, Chase Terrace. A post-mortem showed that he had died of severe injuries to his head and upper body.

The arrested man, who is manager of Deeno's Pizzas, at Sankey's Court, Chase Terrace, confirmed only his name at a court hearing. His solicitor, Mohammed Latif, made an unsuccessful application for bail. Khan is married with two children.

Mr. Dooher's brother Anthony, said that Michael and his friends like to avoid big towns when they went out in order to avoid trouble. He said: "On the night of his death he had gone to see his girlfriend and had just popped into a takeaway. It was a very cowardly attack, by people who could see that he could not fight back. It's disgusting. We are trying to come to terms with the unfairness of it. Michael was such a popular and great person."

He said the family wished to thank the people of Chase Terrace, who had tried to save Michael's life after the attack. "It's very comforting to know that there were people with him when he died" he said.

FOLLOWED

It was thought at first that Mr. Dooher had been in an argument, as he queued for a takeaway meal at Deeno's Pizzas, minutes before he was murdered at 2.30am., but enquiries revealed that he was not involved.

The gang of four, who were responsible for the murder, are believed to have followed Michael Dooher, and his 17-year-old friend, in a car after the victims left the takeaway. One of the men was said to be white, but it appears that the three other men, who were Asian, are the focus of the police hunt.

BN asks once again - where is the media outcry - where are the marches and protests? Michael Dooher was, of course, white.

RACE AND ROGER

Sir Roger Bannister, the first man to break the four minute mile, has declared it obvious that black athletes have physiological advantages when compared with whites.

Sir Roger's achievement electrified Britain during the 1950s., during the last few years when it was still permitted to be proud of Britain, and proud of being white.

All times have their taboos.

During the 1950s. it was quite permissible to point to racial differences. Indeed the fact of those differences was rightly thought so obvious it scarcely required to be laboured over.

On the other hand it was largely forbidden to suggest that the outcome for Britain of the Second World War was not the unalloyed triumph portrayed in official-speak.

Both taboos have served the establishment well.

Now that fifty years have passed since the end of the war, the latter taboo is no longer so essential, as the hosting of a recent public debate by The Times on whether Churchill sold out Britain to the US indicates.

The taboo on a recognition of racial difference, however, is as essential to the post-war liberal order as the religious orthodoxy of the earth being the centre of the universe was to the church in the 17th. century. Galileo was thrown into jail in 1632 for saying that the Earth orbited the Sun.

We are supposed to live in more enlightened times, yet the taboo on racial difference has been imposed in the last twenty years in a manner little different from Galileo's time.

The Chairman of the BNP, John Tyndall, and the Editor of this newspaper, John Morse, were both imprisoned in 1986 for, in effect, saying that races are different.

Sir Roger made his statement to a meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science. The scientists apparently needed to be told something so obvious that one writer on the subject remarked that a child could detect the difference between an Eskimo and a Laplander, from their skulls, as easily as telling cucumbers from zucchinis!

In his magisterial book Race John Baker says that, whatever the common ancestry of mankind, different groups have now evolved separately for so long that they diverge to a degree which makes them, in some cases, technically a different species.

The liberals talk of 'celebrating diversity', yet wish to destroy it by race mixing. Why cannot different races be permitted to live in different parts of the world in their own way? That is what we favour. That really would be 'celebrating diversity'!

NO HOPE FOR UNEMPLOYED AS UK INVESTMENT SLUMPS

INVESTMENT LEVELS in Britain have barely increased since 1992 - offering no hope to millions on the dole of any relief from permanent joblessness.

By 1984, several years after the bottom of the first massive recession of Mrs. Thatcher's premiership, investment had increased by 20%. This time the leap in investment which usually follows recession has simply not happened.

In simple terms - without new investment no really substantial fall in employment can be expected. The much touted fall in the unemployment figure of the last two years is largely a mirage.

What is being counted is the number of people defined as unemployed by the Government, and claiming benefit. The figure bears little resemblance to what really counts - the number of people actually working. The majority leaving the unemployment figure are not finding work, but leaving the workforce entirely - becoming economically inactive. The workforce in employment actually fell by about 14,000 in the first three months of the year.

EMBARRASSING

Even the fall in the numbers claiming benefit is slowing to a halt - in one recent month it increased. This has occurred despite endless fiddles introduced over the last decade to artificially reduce the politically embarrassing figure.

Long-term unemployment, for example, is particularly politically sensitive, so any break whatsoever in claiming dole is taken as restarting the clock, and removing the claimant from the ranks of the long-term unemployed. Someone who works for a week or two every year will not be defined as long term unemployed for example.

A particularly ironic aspect of the unemployment figures has been the treatment of disablement benefit.

Anyone who was able to place themselves in that category automatically left the unemployment statistics, and obtained increased benefits. More expensive for the Government, but politically advantageous!

Unfortunately the costs of paying disablement benefit then rocketed, leaving the Government between the devil and the deep blue sea - either increased taxation, with an election looming, or an increased unemployment figure!

Since the 1950s. unemployment has rocketed, as our chart shows. The trick for recent Governments, who have now largely abandoned the unemployed, is to deliberately misinterpret the unemployment figure.

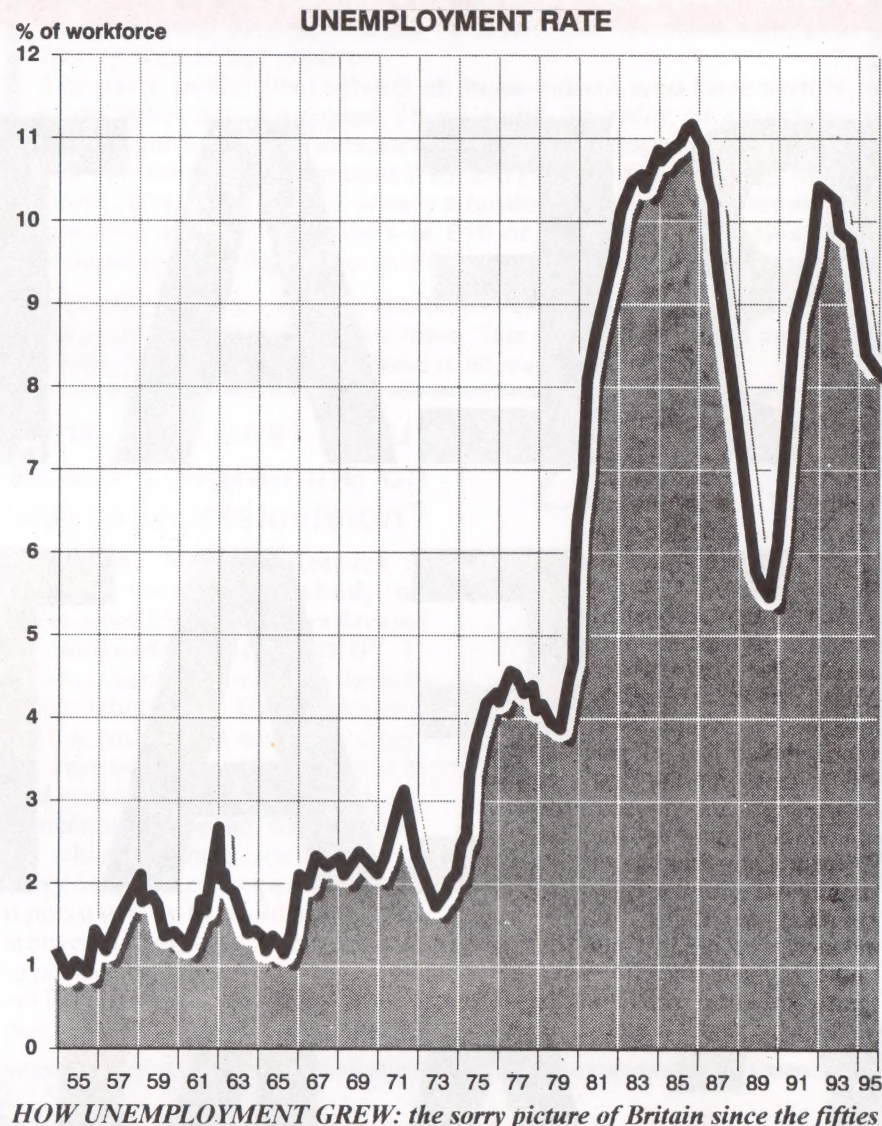

When it is falling, as a part of the normal trade cycle, they say this is an indication that they are solving the unemployment problem. When it is rising they say that this is a temporary effect of the far sighted structural changes they are making in order to permanently beat unemployment!

INVESTMENT

In an economy open to the rest of the world - something opposed by the BNP - only massive investment will permit low unemployment. Without it all one can expect is an occasional artificial and short-lived boom in job opportunities, such as that during the late 1980s.

Britain, in fact, has a lamentable record of investment in its economy. Germany invests an extra 5% of what it produces, and Japan 12% more. In Japan's case investment levels are nearly double that in Britain.

The Government claims that the secret of low unemployment is low inflation. During the 1960s. Governments claimed exactly the reverse!

In reality experience in numerous countries gives no indication that low inflation increases growth, and thus employment.

Low inflation is certainly welcome to bankers, but has little effect on willingness to invest. How many people say to themselves "Inflation is low today. I'll start a business."

In reality high inflation generally makes it easier to repay debt, as any home mortgagee knows. Income grows and repayments become a smaller proportion of it. Businesses generally begin in debt.

Ominously, nearly all the new jobs being created are white-collar. The less skilled have few opportunities. Indeed, lack of employment in itself prevents building skills - there is really no substitute for doing a job in the real world. The prospects without radical political change are bleak.

More vicious street attacks

A 34-YEAR-OLD Peterborough man, Stephen Witney, was fighting for life in intensive care, after being found unconscious near a public house. He had been savagely beaten, leaving him with a fractured skull and broken jaw. His condition was described by Addenbrooke's hospital in Cambridge as 'critical'.

The attack took place in an area described by residents as having been quiet until recently. Mr. Witney was found at 11.30pm., shortly after what police described as 'severe disturbances' at the nearby Lord Westwood public house.

Police also said that they were keeping an open mind as to whether the attack was racial. The fighting which took place earlier was between black and white gangs.

Local residents were reluctant to speak about racial tension in the area, but some admitted there had been trouble with gangs.

As so often happens with attacks of this kind, the local press did their best to give the impression that Mr. Witney (pictured) was to blame for the assault on him. Mr. Witney is, of course, white. Friends said that he was a 'great guy', who would never cause confrontation.

In another attack, outside a Nottingham pub, a schoolboy was doused with lighter fluid in a mugging attack. Richard Clark (pictured) told later of the terrifying moment when thugs tried to burn him alive after he refused to hand over his bike.

Police said that several attempts were made to set fire to the fluid, but a lighter wielded by the muggers luckily failed to operate.

The incident happened outside the New Inn at Carrington. Three muggers, all black, and between 17-18, approached Richard and demanded his money. He was then forced into the pub's car park, and doused from a gas lighter cartridge.

RICHARD CLARK: Doused with petrol in bicycle theft

After the men had failed to set fire to Richard they started talking about a knife. He handed over his £210 bike - the second in a month to be stolen from him in a mugging attack.

● A 14-year-old girl was thrown from a train near Croydon, after refusing to share a man's can of lager. Despite severe pelvic injuries and a broken arm, she crawled 150 yards to nearby South Croydon station.

The attacker was described as black, about 28, with a pockmarked face and gold tooth.

Welling rioters sent to prison

NINE MEN have been sent to prison for periods of between 16 months and three years, after they were convicted of riot charges at Maidstone Crown Court. A tenth man was given 200 hours community service.

The men, who were identified from police, press, and TV pictures taken at the October 1993 riot - one of the worst ever seen in Britain. During the disturbances, which caused £50,000 of damage, a black police officer was beaten unconscious by 'anti-racist' demonstrators.

The officer in charge, Commander Hugh Blenkins, said the rioters made "The most intense physical assault I have ever seen in 35 years of policing."

The riot was organised by Trotskyite groups, and intended to storm the BNP's bookshop in Upper Wickham Lane. There is no doubt that, if the rioters had been allowed to reach their target, they would have killed all those in the team manning the bookshop.

Large segments of a cemetery wall were kicked down, during the disturbances, and bricks thrown at police injuring a large number of officers.

A spokesman for one Trotskyite gang, which took part in the riot, Naomi Byron, said after the sentences were passed that the police should have been prosecuted not rioters.

Strict immigration controls?

Who do they think they are kidding?

Spaghetti Junction dawn swoop exposes one-third of road menders as illegal immigrants

A DAWN SWOOP on road menders at Birmingham's famous Spaghetti Junction showed up the sham of Britain's immigration controls. When fraud investigators from the Home Office, Inland Revenue, and the Benefits Agency, arrived at road works they not only uncovered a massive benefits racket, but, incredibly, also that one-third of the employees were illegal immigrants!

120 men were interviewed in the raid, with officials backed up by 50 officers from the West Midlands and Staffordshire police forces. 24 of the men interviewed were found to be claiming benefits, while earning £150 per week mending the world-famous interchange.

'Operation Bypass' had been planned since last September, and netted 40 illegal immigrants - all Asian. It covered not only the junction, but also the A50 by-pass near Stoke-on Trent.

Naturally it was claimed by officials that the illegal immigrants faced deportation. BN can guarantee that, one way or another, most will remain in Britain.

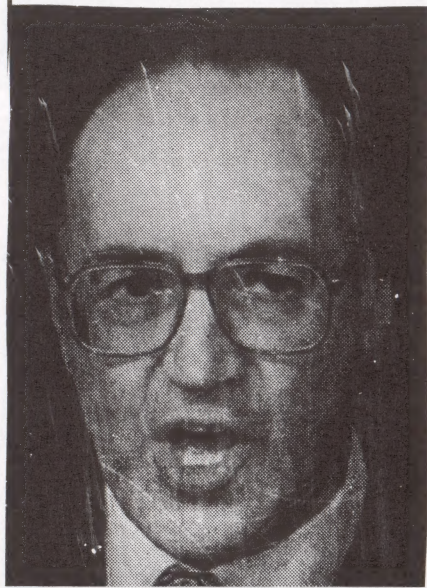

The fact that one-third of the entire work force at a site like this can be illegals indicates how little real control there is. How little this are essentially public relations exercises to allay public concern, while the flood inwards continues.

Those caught claiming benefits were getting £150 for a 50-60 hour week plus state benefits of between £50-£130. The effect of this kind of employment is to depress wages to the point where it is not worth working without fraudulent benefit claims to supplement incomes.

A Benefits Agency spokesman described the operation as a resounding success. BN calls it a dismal failure. How many other workplaces in Britain are staffed by a massive proportion of illegal immigrants, while British folk are desperate for work?

The fact of the matter is that the Government's policy is to gradually

replace our own people with those from abroad - at first attracting people into artificially low waged jobs, with fiddles on the side, and then trying to reduce the cost to the state of fiddles, and be left with a captive immigrant workforce.

Home Secretary Michael Howard is again promising an immigration crackdown - with new legislation in the autumn session of parliament. The British public have been told the same story in virtually every year since the Macmillan Government's promise to halt immigration during the early 1960s. The flood continues unabated.

If the public imagines that employment for illegal immigrants would at least be blocked where official jobs are concerned, they should consider how a Mauritian illegal immigrant was able to become a police officer - undetected for six years. He forged educational documents, to avoid recruitment tests.

Soy Modelly was only exposed after returning from a day trip to France!

POLISH GYPSIES

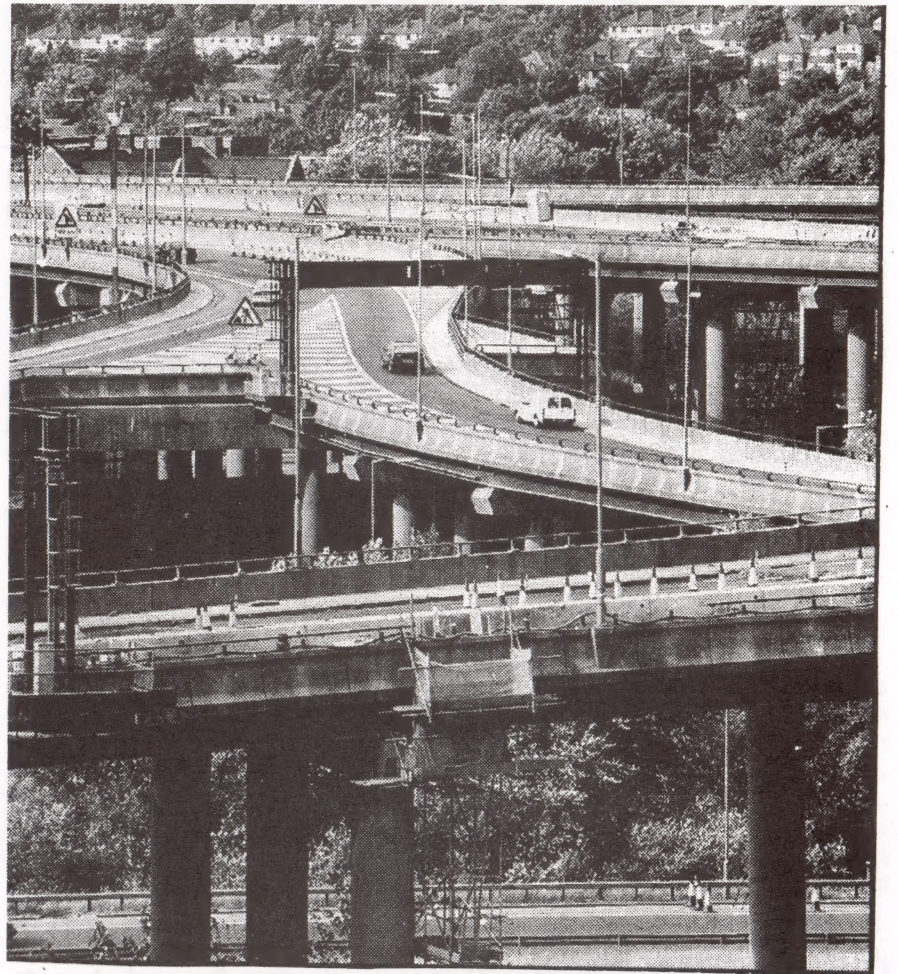

The number of those claiming 'political asylum' has rocketed recently. The whole world knows that Mr. Howard's 'crackdowns' are a lie. Cam Howard's council in North London has now started housing Polish gypsies, on the orders of the Government.

Immediately on arrival in Britain they are being given houses and flats - in priority to local people who have often been on the waiting list for years. The Labour Council has started to use the influx to pretend they are anti-immigrant, in the most cynical display ever seen in the borough!

Gangs of Croatian thieves are visiting Wales on away-day pickpocketing expeditions. The gangs target elderly people, who are easier to rob.

Police say that pensioners in Merthyr have lost hundred of pounds to the thieves. Two of them appeared before magistrates recently charged with 14 thefts. Weeks before the same two had been bailed for similar offences.

BIRMINGHAM'S SPAGHETTI JUNCTION: Dawn raid showed 40 out of 120 road staff were illegal immigrants

● France plans to expel 20,000 illegal immigrants each year - a doubling of the present figure.

The intended number of expulsions is still only a fraction of the number of new immigrants coming in, estimated at at least 100,000 illegals - and only a fraction of the millions already in the country. It is still far higher than in Britain.

The number being expelled is actually falling! Despite Government claims to be 'tightening up', only about 5,000 were expelled in the last year for which figures are available - about a thousand down on the previous year.

The Front National has poured scorn on the French Government plan as inadequate. Immigration featured heavily in the recent presidential election, forcing President Chirac to be seen to take a tougher line.

If things are bad in France they are far worse in Britain. A British judge recently blocked deportation of a Nigerian, Helen Ojo, 26, who had served a three and a half year prison sentence, for her part in a £1m. social security racket, and had been recommended for deportation.

Justice Popplewell suspended deportation for a full hearing of her case.

BN CURRYWATCH

'Special Tonight Sir - Ali's Ice Cream Dripped With Blood

BN's Curry Watchers are back at work this month hurrying hither and thither in the hunt for unusual delicacies from the world of curry. In recent months regular BN readers have received reports about the 'Femala Torso Curry' available at the Bagiya Restaurant in Delhi, as well as curries with other rare ingredients like underpants, cobwebs, and slugs.

Some curries had become 'invisible' to VAT Inspectors, and at the Akash Restaurant in London Road, also in Leicester, a special 'Bash Your Head In Curry' was served. As a part of the service at the Akash, the local ladies' Rounders Club was beaten up by staff wielding baseball bats!

This month we turn to dessert. After your rare curry you may fancy a little something to follow. You can do no better than visit the Akbar Tandoori in Uppingham Road, Leicester, run by Ali Akbar. Ali's business is sadly in the hands of the receivers at present, and he needs your custom.

Leicester Magistrates heard recently how health inspectors found meat dripping onto the ice cream. The walls and ceilings of the kitchen were all filthy, as were the oven, freezers, and fridge. Ali faced fines of up to £65,000, but upon hearing that his business was in debt to the tune of over £100,000, magistrates said they would be lenient, and imposed a fine of only £200!

"The court considers it has a duty to protect the health of the citizens of Leicester. We take a very serious view of what happened at your restaurant" said Chairman of the Bench Stephen Bryan "We have the power to impose fines of £5,000 per offence, however, bearing in mind your circumstances we are going to be lenient."

Asians in Scotland call for independence

ASIANS in Scotland have launched their own campaign for independence. Scottish National Party leader Alex Salmond said that the launch of the new 'Asians for Independence' group showed the strength of support for breaking up the United Kingdom among the Asian community - officially numbered at 40,000. Mr. Salmond said the party hoped to field an Asian candidate at the next general election.

BN says that the Asian initiative in Scotland is only the beginning. It will not be long before demands are made for heavily Asian areas like Leicester and Bradford to enjoy special status with Muslim law applied - while, of course, enjoying full access to Government funding and social security benefits.

The setting up of formally semi-independent colonies within Britain will soon be demanded on grounds of protection from 'racism'.

If anyone considers this far fetched, they should consider the fact that, a decade or two ago, if it had been suggested that Asians would colonise Scotland in large numbers, and demand the destruction of Britain - with full approval from a recognised party.

No one would have believed it, but it is now happening in today's collapsing Britain.

IN OUR POSTBAG

Road To Victory

We the Muslims need a solution to our problems! Our lands are infested by kuffar colonies. Our leaders are treacherous and seek to surrender every ounce of Muslim power to the kuffar nations. In Palestine, Kashmir and Bosnia, etc. our sons are being killed, our sisters are being robbed of their honour and our children of Iraq being starved to death because of the UN (i.e. western barbaric band of "Freedom").

How do we solve these problems? How can we once again become the NATION OF JIHAD?

Many Muslims are awakening to the only true answer, to progress forward and establish a system which led the world for 1300 years... the KHILAFAH SYSTEM. The task of re-establishing the Islamic State is not an easy one, and requires the total dedication and bravery of the Muslims. The most common question from Muslims is How do we re-establish Khilafah?

Allah (swt) says: "Whoever the Messenger (saw) gives to you take of it, and whatever he forbids you, abstain from it" [59:7]. So when looking to solve any problem, including prayer, fasting or establishing Khilafah, we must refer it to the Messenger of Allah (saw) and scrutinise his method. How did Muhammad (saw) turn the adulterous society of Arabia into a magnificent and flourishing Islamic civilisation?

The answer... intense political struggle. The noble Messenger (saw) came to this world with his message openly challenging the world. Believing in the truth he invited people to Islam, he declared an intellectual war against "the red and the black" of people i.e. everyone, irrespective of their traditions and customs, their rulers and masses, their religions and doctrines.

Allah (swt) says: "It is he who sent the Messenger (saw) with guidance and religion of truth to prevail over all religions, even though the idolaters may detest it." [9:33]

The Prophet (saw) began by discrediting the gods of Quraysh. He challenged openly the idol worshippers in their doctrines and discredited them whilst he was alone and isolated, with no helpers and no weapons except his deep faith in Islam to which he invited people. He did not care for the Arab customs, gods, religions, traditions and in these things he was not courteous nor gave them any regard.

Allah (swt) says: "And speak to them a word to reach their very souls." [4:63]

Thus Allah (swt) commands us to shake the hearts of the disbelievers, in a manner to stimulate thought and change. The changing of a societies concepts are a prerequisite to changing the ruling system of the nation.

Allah (swt) says: "Verily never will Allah change the condition of a people until they change themselves." [13:11]

After thirteen years of uncompromising dawa (invitation) to Islam to find Allah (swt) granted the victory to the Muslims. To the efforts of Musab ibn Umayr (ra) the people of Medina accepted, and they gave their pledge to fight the Islamic State there, and they protected it. Within fifty years the Arabian peninsula, Palestine, Syria, Yemen and much of north Africa had been incorporated into the mighty Khilafah system.

The method advocated by the Prophet (saw) is the method we must adopt today if we wish to attain success. It is vital to note that rules, objectives, values and the method are wahi (revelation from Allah (swt)) and are valid till the day of judgement as no Messenger will proceed the Prophet (saw).

Our situation today is as the Prophet (saw) situation in Mecca, thus we must initiate open struggle between the ideas of Islam and the ideas of Kuffar (disbelief) in the following manner:

1. Intensive Study: To acquaint ourselves with the general and specific culture of Islam. This includes the life of the Prophet (saw), Islamic history and jurisprudence, etc. Also to understand, in depth, the present day opposition to Islam i.e. freedom, democracy, nationalism, capitalism, socialism and secularism, etc. Preferably, this should be done collectively through circles, meetings, etc.

2. Interaction with the people: Release the concepts of Islam into our surroundings. Wherever we are, we should endeavour to join the marouf (good) and forbid the munkar (evil). For Muslims in the West this means to portray Islam as a complete and superior ideology to capitalism, and to smash the disastrous concepts of freedom and democracy which are now worshipped like gods.

The return of Islam is so close, because Muslims no longer accept any thoughts and ideas except Islam, the weakness of our governments and their betrayal can be smelt everywhere.

O' Muslims, there is nothing left except actions we must undertake to achieve the establishment of the Islamic state. O' MUSLIMS, WORK, MOVE, ATTACK THE KUFFAR CONCEPTS THAT SURROUND YOU!

Al-Bukhari reports that the Prophet (saw) said:

"The Prophets ruled over the children of Israel. Whenever a Prophet died, another Prophet succeeded him, but there will be no more Prophets after me; there will be Khulafa'a and they will number many."

THE PICTURE THAT COULD MEAN A £20,000 FINE

REGULARS at a pub in Redbridge are outraged by a council order forcing the removal of the Union Jack and flagpoles. Redbridge Council in Essex have served an enforcement order on the Cauliflower pub in the High Road. Failure to remove the flags and poles would mean a fine of up to £20,000. A spokesman for the council said that the flagpoles were 'inappropriate' for a listed building.

STUNNED

Regular customers said they were stunned by the council's action, which they described as 'petty and bureaucratic'. One regular, Steve Keen, said "I like Union Jacks, and can't see why they should be removed. If it is an English listed building with a Union Jack on it, and it is the right way up, I don't see the problem."

Another local, Ian Hunt, fumed about the decision. "The Union Jack is the national flag of this country. We have to put up with flags flying from the big stores, but we can't put up our own national flag. It's disgusting."

The Council say that planning officers warned Scottish and Newcastle Retail, the owners of the pub, that they were unlikely to get permission for flag poles. They then applied for planning permission, which was refused.

KIDDING

BN says what is wrong with flags on old pubs? When pubs like the Cauliflower were built it was normal to show flags on poles, as old photos of Victorian and Edwardian Britain often show. Who does the council think it is kidding? Redbridge's action is part of a new trend all too familiar to the BNP - the misuse of planning laws, never intended to be used for political reasons, to stamp out any expression of patriotism. The same technique was used recently by Bexley Council against the BNP's shop in Welling.

Perhaps the brewers might consider hanging the ANL flag, or the hammer and sickle, outside their pub. They would probably be given a civic award and council grant money as 'anti-racist' campaigners!

The public is getting more and more fed up with this kind of nonsense. Councils should stick to providing proper public services.

THE CAULIFLOWER: Public House in Redbridge has fallen foul of left-wing zealots who hate Britain simply by flying the national flag

HISTORY BOOKS 'ARRESTED'

Police raided the premises of the Historical Review Press in Sussex earlier this year, and 'arrested' a large part of the book stock. The reason given for the raid was a claim that the material might 'incite racial hatred'. Among the books taken away as possibly illegal were Homer's Iliad and The Bhagavad Gita!

The booksellers believe the real reason for the raid was that the firm was thought connected to the distribution of 'Tomorrow's Job', a leaflet attacking political correctness inside the police, which was distributed to stations throughout the country. (see May BN)

Despite the leaflet being entirely legal, it is thought to have infuriated Police Commissioner Sir Paul Condon, since it all too accurately reflected what ordinary coppers think about the way PC is preventing the proper application of the law.

Another bookseller, Stephen Books, has now suffered a similar raid and book 'arrests'. The claim that Britain is a free country wears thinner each day.

MIGRANT SCHIZOPHRENIA RATE FIVE TIMES AVERAGE

Afro-Caribbeans in Britain suffer a rate of schizophrenia five times greater than other groups - and five times greater than if they stay in the Caribbean.

Recent research by Nottingham University has revealed the high figure for immigrant mental illness. Since many studies of the disease have shown that it occurs at much the same rate in all societies of native citizens, it is thought that the prevalence of the illness in the UK among blacks must be caused by environmental pressures upon immigrants.

UK BIRTH RATE FALLS AGAIN

Britain's birth rate has fallen again - from 1.82 per woman in 1993 to 1.74 last year. The figure is too low to allow replacement of the population, although we are not yet facing a disaster like that of Italy with a birth rate of about one child per woman.

The figure conceals the wide variation in birth rates between different races - far higher among immigrants.

Among Bangladeshis in the UK family size averages something like eight children. The white birth rate is thus below 1.74. White people are, in fact, being encouraged to stop existing.

'New' Labour's old sleaze...

■ A LABOUR COUNCILLOR and JP was arrested recently and charged with passport fraud. Mohammed Hussain had been tipped to become Peterborough's first Pakistani mayor. He is accused of falsifying passport details for another person.

The Labour Councillor (pictured right top), a father of seven, of Lime Tree Avenue, Peterborough, was the first Asian to hold council office in the town. He is a former deputy mayor, and narrowly missed the top job in last May's local elections, when he was beaten by one vote.

Cllr. Hussain had served on the council since 1983, and represents the town's Central Ward. He was re-elected in May despite having suffered a stroke, and is a magistrate. A Peterborough newspaper revealed in June that the Crown Prosecution Service was considering an offence of passport irregularities involving a councillor.

Michael Dale, Peterborough's Labour party spokesman, said after the arrest that the party would be taking no action and leaving matters up to the court. "As far as we are concerned, everything will remain the same" he said.

■ BATH LABOUR parliamentary contender David Hurst has quit as a candidate after being investigated for dole fraud. He celebrated his selection as Labour's general election candidate a few weeks ago, and pledged to crack down on black economy social security fraudsters.

He is now said to have claimed £500 a month in social security benefits, while working as an accountant. The Benefits Agency has launched an enquiry into Mr. Hurst's affairs. He was the treasurer of Bath Labour Party, but has now resigned.

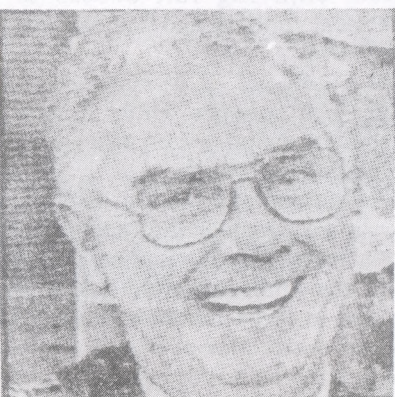

Mr. Hurst, 33, (pictured centre right) has 50 accountancy clients, and works from his home in the city's Marlborough Buildings. When confronted with dole cheques he at first denied signing on, then admitted that he had collected a recent cheque, but said that the DSS knew he was working. He refused to say if he was declaring all his earnings.

A spokesman for Bath Labour Party said that Mr. Hurst would not be leaving the party. Hurst had launched his electoral campaign with the statement "There is a necessity to combat fraud in the welfare state."

■ THE FORMER MAYOR of Swindon, David Glaholm, was arrested on September 2 by detectives investigating an alleged £100,000 charity fraud. Mr. Glaholm, a Labour Councillor in Swindon, and a member of the Wiltshire Police Authority, was questioned at Westlea Police Station, on suspicion of conspiring to steal.

The father-of-two (pictured bottom right) was later released on police bail pending further enquiries. Cllr. Glaholm is 47, and a worker at the Rover plant. He is the second Thamesdown Borough councillor to be arrested in connection with the Thamesdown Furniture Initiative, and the Red Brick Project. He is manager of the two groups, one a charity fund-raising organisation, and the other intended to give furniture to the needy. His wife is secretary of both groups.

The arrest came a week after the press revealed that the councillor had been caught talking to a prostitute in a red-light area. He has refused to comment, but it understood that he denies any wrong doing.

'Director of Health' was a paedophile

A FORMER Director of Public Health at Hereford County Hospital has been jailed for three years by a Sheffield court for paedophilia.

Ian Ferguson, 52, a hospital consultant, Lieutenant Colonel in the Territorial Army, and former chairman of the Herefordshire Cricket Association, was convicted of inciting a Rotherham man to indecently assault children aged nine, six, and three.

Ferguson was convicted with two other men - all members of a Liverpool-based paedophile ring the Golden Wheel World Wide Contact Club.

BN says that Hereford MEP, David Hallam, who called for 'prayers' against the BNP, (September BN) would do better to pray for local people's health services in the area.

TO THE POINT

The Serbs have not been, of late, the principal obstacle to a settlement which gives them much of what they had been claiming.

As for the poor old UN, it is now cast merely as a reluctant mercenary army to a brief American hegemony. The American defence secretary, William Perry, last month said he would bomb British ground troops if it suited American policy.

Simon Jenkins - The Times September 2 1995

The gap between rich and poor and America is reaching dangerous levels. The signs of incipient 'Brazilianisation' have been visible for some time, but in the last few months there has been a series of warnings from Left and Right that the social fabric of the United States is coming apart. Salaries of $3m are typical ... among chief executives.

In any other industrial country there would be a populist rebellion by now, says Michael Lind in The Next American Nation. His book is one of a number this year attacking the deformed culture of America's "overclass".

He argues that the new oligarchy is keeping the lid on things with a "Southern Bourbon" strategy, a technique mastered by the elites of the Old South to keep blacks and poor whites at each other's throats.

The policy is now known as "multiculturalism" and, amazingly, is being promoted by people who consider themselves "liberals".

The racial spoils system is an immense fraud, argues Lind, perpetrated by the white power structure to co-opt - and emasculate - black and Hispanic leaders, and to channel white anger and resentment against minorities.

There was no conspiracy to do this, of course. It simply evolved.

Demonstrators vandalise Heseltine's country home

THE COUNTRY HOME of the Deputy Prime Minister, Michael Heseltine, suffered organised vandalism during a six hour demonstration against open-cast coal mining a few weeks ago. Not a single arrest was made.

Fifty people, including the wife of NUM leader Arthur Scargill, invaded Thenford House, set in 470 acres of Northamptonshire. They dug up the lawn (picture) calling it a protest against the loss of deep mines.

Members of an Indian tribe took part in the demonstration. They said their land in Arizona had been damaged by open-cast mining.

Mr. Heseltine refused to speak to the demonstrators, and said: "It is a terrible waste of money to have caused the police such inconvenience."

BN says that it is quite intolerable for Mr. Heseltine's home to be invaded and wrecked in this way, but it is he, and the other leading members of his party, who have presided over the breakdown in law and order which allows these sort of people to feel free to behave like this.

Before the Tories took power in 1979 this sort of thing would not have been permitted - or arrests would have been made. As they have sown so they now reap!

Mum's life of hell with nightmare neighbours

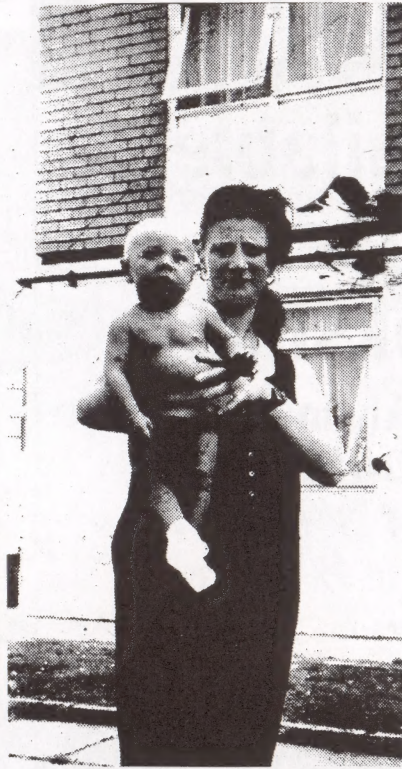

PREGNANT MUM Michelle Sheppard has told of her family's life living in an Isle of Dogs flat underneath the neighbours from hell.

Michelle and her husband, with a six-month-old baby, and another on the way, have lived in a one-bedroom flat in Glengarnock Avenue for two years. The family say their lives are being destroyed by upstairs neighbours, who employ their windows as a dustbin and lavatory - as well as creating continuous noise.

"We've been pushed to the limit" said a tearful Michelle. The noise upstairs sounds like someone trying to break my door down." Among the torrent of rubbish thrown down has been cardboard boxes, a cut-throat razor, urine, and a river of spittle.

Michelle's mum says: "Stuff gets thrown out at least two or three times a day. We've tried everything legitimate. It calmed down a bit after we got a Bangladeshi leader to speak to them. But it starts up again and the Council do nothing."

A Council spokesman said a warning letter had been sent to the tenants.

Citizens Advice Bureau 'like Russia under Communism'

A WELSH Citizens Advice bureau volunteer has quit because of the 'loony left' policies imposed on staff. Steffan Denis said that senior managers had gone over the top, in a 'political correctness' campaign. Matters reached a head at Swansea CAB when Mr. Steffan was banned from circulating a letter to colleagues complaining about what was happening at the branch.

He worked for the CAB for two years, during which he says staff were told, among other things, to stop using Christian names, sign a 'homosexual rights' petition, support positive discrimination for ethnic groups and sexual perverts, and ask clients to describe their sexual preferences.

Mr. Dennis, 40, accuses the CAB of religious intolerance and a dictatorial

- 'Christian' names banned
- Clients asked about sex lives
- Staff must support 'positive discrimination'
- Petition for gay sex at 16 style towards volunteers. It was "bizarre" he said that a questionnaire was distributed asking clients to define their sexuality. The atmosphere was "More what you would have expected in Eastern Europe before the Berlin Wall came down than in a supposed democracy".

Swansea CAB manager Jackie Preston said "We are not intolerant of people's religious beliefs, although we expect our workers to support our policies". BN can guess what sort of people are setting the policies!

BN BRIEFING

ANOTHER MIRACLE

Those BNP members and supporters, who plan to queue up in Southall to see the Miracle of Hindu Statues Drinking Milk, should never forget the other quite extraordinary series of miracles which took place in Welling, Kent, a year or two ago.

A series of Trotskyite demonstrations against the BNP brought hundreds, and in one case, thousands of rioters and troublemakers to the area.

When media reports appeared about these events, the numbers of demonstrators were said to be up to ten times the number who actually appeared. In the case of the biggest demo 5,000 became 50,000!

Nine people who took part in the miracle were jailed at Maidstone Crown Court recently (see Page 2). The Miracle of Welling, as it is known, is now a part of our national heritage.

OUR POPULAR COMMONWEALTH

Banana republics throughout the world, many with no connection with Britain, are now forming a queue to join the Commonwealth. Cameroon, most of whose people speak French, has just been admitted, and Mozambique, home to a long running civil war, has also applied, as has the former Italian colony of Eritrea.

Naturally, as 'Commonwealth citizens', the inhabitants of these splendid countries will want to visit the motherland. Their holidays in Britain may well prove so enjoyable that they decide to stay permanently! Quite a compliment to Britain.

Let us hope that our new visitors do not have to suffer the 'racism', which other hard-working people have had to endure when they came here on 'holiday'!

WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

A new biography of Michael Portillo is soon to appear. The 'great white hope' of the Tory Right, who is of Spanish ancestry, must be deeply puzzled by comments made about the biography in the Evening Standard.

The paper said that the biography, by Radio Four 'Today' presenter Michael Gove, would not contain any revelations about Mr. Portillo which 'might frighten the horses'.

Plain tales of life in Britain

The Secret of Stonehenge revealed - built by Africans!

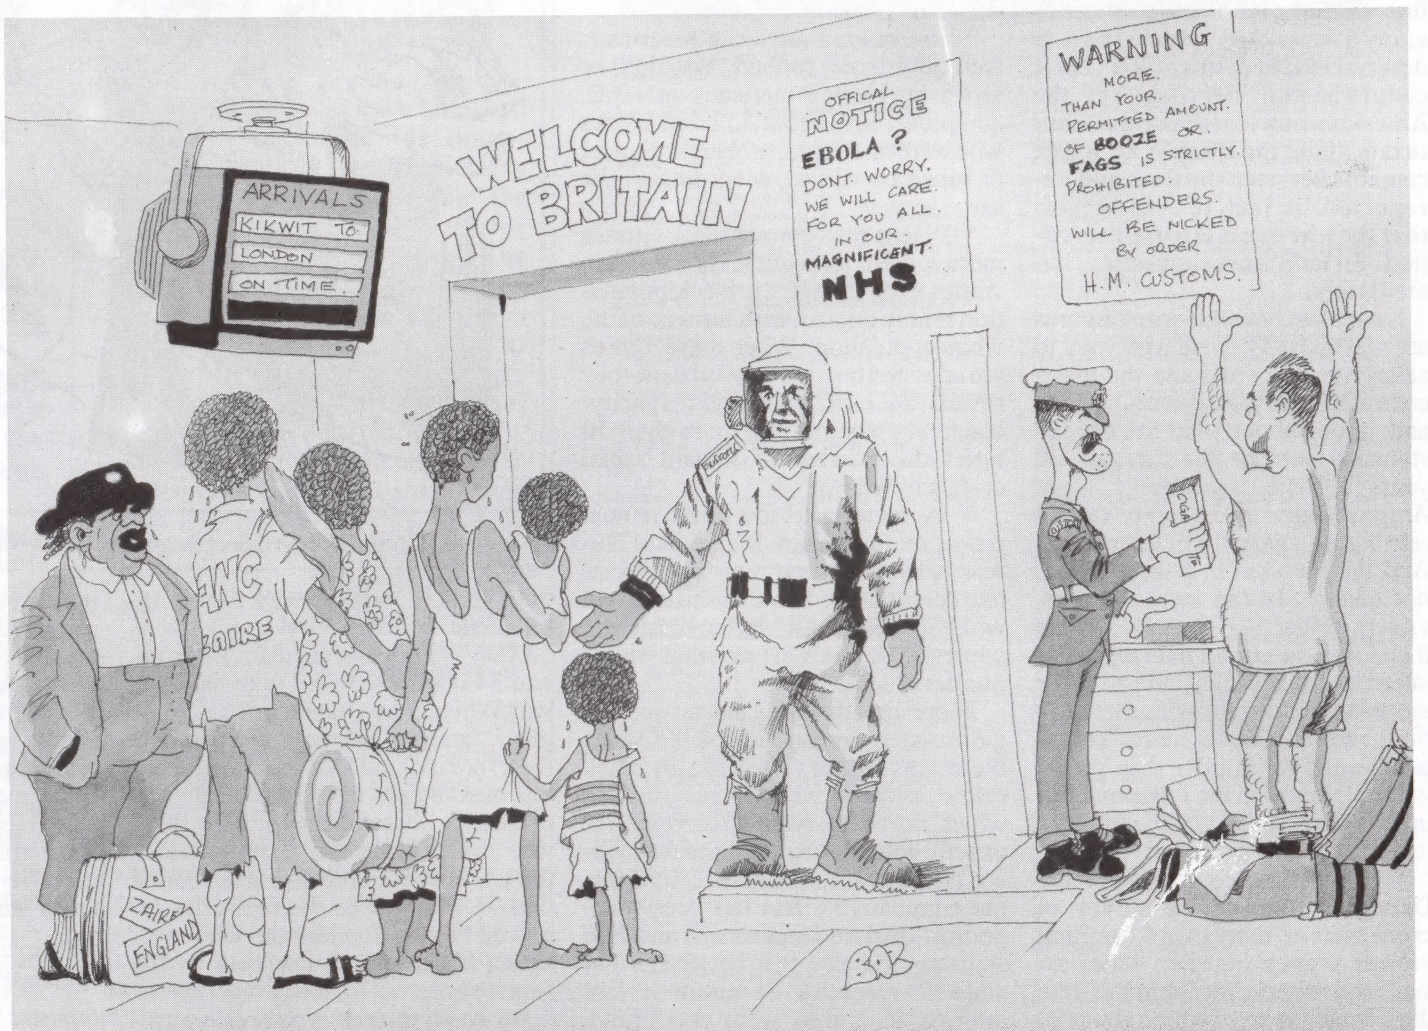

BRITAIN'S first historical board game aimed at black people has finally solved the mystery of Stonehenge. Archaeologists have argued for decades about its origins, but the truth has finally emerged - the board game, 'Nubian Jak' - meaning black flag - has solved a problem which has defeated some of the best minds. Stonehenge was, in fact, built by Africans. Previous inaccurate theories included spacemen, Druids, and many others.

The game's inventor, Johnny Bubeula, 29, says he has unearthed scholarly references proving that the monument was built in honour of an African Buddha. "If you look in the African world you will frequently see scientific engineering of that calibre" says Mr. Bubeula, who is a musician, model, and ex-social worker, born in Britain of Jamaican parents.

Johnny took four years to research the 1,200 questions in 'Nubian Jak'. He says "The game highlights the astounding contributions of people of African descent in the world."

Among other interesting revelations, the game also tells us that Beethoven was of African descent, and that George III's wife Queen Charlotte-Queen Victoria's grandmother - was black.

● A Mr. Moshe Levy is suing Sainsbury's for £200,000. His local Kingsbury branch, in London, put up a sign saying 'Sainsbury's wishes all our Jewish customers a Happy New Year'. By accident the sign was placed a few inches from pork sausages. Businessman Mr. Levy says he cannot sleep, and that "images of desecration" will cause him 'psychological damage and scarring' for the rest of his life. He is haunted by images of pigs.

SPREADING THE WORD

British National Party Handbook on PROPAGANDA

SPREADING THE WORD is a handbook on propaganda that has just been produced by the British National Party to supplement its Activists' Handbook, published last year. Spreading the Word is illustrated and runs to 60 pages. It contains five sections, namely: (1) General Principles of Propaganda; (2) Recruitment; (3) Canvassing for Elections; (4) Speaking to the Media; and (5) Speaking from the Platform and Presentation of Party Meetings.

This handbook devotes special attention to familiar enemy smears against the BNP and nationalists generally, advising the reader on the best techniques for dealing with these, whether they be raised in the process of trying to recruit new members, when canvassing voters on the doorstep or when taking part in interviews with the press, radio or television. The handbook is a mine of information on every problem involved in spreading the nationalist message and winning support for the BNP. It costs £1.50 plus 36p p&p.

THE US RACE WAR OF BLACK AGAINST WHITE

by Paul Sheehan

The longest war America has ever fought is the Dirty War, and it is not over. It has lasted 30 years so far and claimed more than 25 million victims. It has cost almost as many lives as the Vietnam War. It determined the result of last year's congressional election. Yet the American news media do not want to talk about the Dirty War, which remains between the lines and unreported. In fact, to even suggest that the war exists is to be discredited. So let's start suggesting, immediately.

No matter how the crime figures are massaged by those who want to acknowledge or dispute the existence of a Dirty War, there is nothing ambiguous about what the official statistics portray: for the past 30 years a large segment of black America has waged a war of violent retribution against white America. And the problem is getting worse, not better. In the past 20 years, violent crime has increased more than four times faster than the population. Young blacks (under 18) are more violent than previous generations and are 12 times more likely to be arrested for murder than young whites. Nearly all the following figures, which speak for themselves, have not been reported in America:

* According to the latest US Department of Justice survey of crime victims, more than 6.6 million violent crimes (murder, rape, assault and robbery) are committed in the US each year, of which about 20 per cent, or 1.3 million, are inter-racial crimes.

* Most victims of race crime - about 90 per cent - are white, according to the survey "Highlights from 20 Years of Surveying Crime Victims", published in 1993.

* Almost 1 million white Americans were murdered, robbed, assaulted or raped by black Americans in 1992, compared with about 132,000 blacks who were murdered, robbed, assaulted or raped by whites, according to the same survey.

* Blacks thus committed 7.5 times more violent inter-racial crimes than whites even though the black population is only one-seventh the size of the white population. When these figures are adjusted on a per capita basis, they reveal an extraordinary disparity: blacks are committing more than 50 times the number of violent racial crimes of whites.

* According to the latest annual report on murder by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, most inter-racial murders involve black assailants and white victims, with blacks murdering whites at 18 times the rate that whites murder blacks.

These breathtaking disparities began to emerge in the mid-1960's, when there was a sharp increase in black crime against whites, an upsurge which, not coincidentally, corresponds exactly with the beginning of the modern civil rights movement. Over time, the cumulative effect has been staggering. Justice Department and FBI statistics indicate that between 1964 and 1994 more than 25 million violent inter-racial crimes were committed, overwhelmingly involving black offenders and white victims, and more than 45,000 people were killed in inter-racial murders. By comparisons 58,000 Americans died in Vietnam, and 34,000 were killed in the Korean war. When non-violent crimes (burglary, larceny, car theft and personal theft) are included, the cumulative totals become prodigious. The Bureau of Justice Statistics says 27 million non-violent crimes were committed in the US in 1992, and the survey found that 31 per cent of the robberies involved black offenders and white victims (while only 2 per cent in the reverse).

When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since World War II. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double-standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard.

BRITISH NATIONALIST NEEDS YOUR HELP!

BRITISH NATIONALIST is pleased to announce that sales are at record levels, thanks largely to increasing bulk orders by local units.

The massive influx of new members since the election of Derek Beackon in September 1993 has also boosted circulation, thanks to the greatly increased number of subscriptions by individual members and supporters of the BNP.

One thing which readers constantly request is more news about BNP activities up and down the country. Despite local party activity being at its highest level since the formation of the BNP, some units are still not letting us know of their good work! Units should send us regular reports, together with any photos and press cuttings.

Readers perform an invaluable service by sending us national, international, and local press cuttings, and other items. Local papers often cover issues suppressed in the national press. We have as a result been able to expose corrupt Labour councillors. Items of local news are often of great importance in building up a national picture of what is happening. Please do not mark press cuttings, excepting the date and name of newspaper (if not shown) since this may prevent reproduction in BN.

Please help us by keeping those news items rolling in!

BNP ON INTERNET!

The BNP has now established a site on the Internet. A second site is in the testing stage. The sites carry a condensed version of British Nationalist, and general information about the party, and its book service.

It is no exaggeration to say that the Internet is the most significant development for politics since the invention of television. TV has allowed a succession of treacherous British Governments to invade the country's homes with massive anti-British brainwashing campaigns - with no right of reply for millions who oppose the destruction of our country.

In the US the constitution allows patriots to start, for example, pro-white radio stations like that advertised on this page. In Britain the Government has a complete stranglehold on access to TV and radio. The level of the deception imposed on the public is well illustrated by a recent BBC programme on mugging, which made out that the victims did not mind!

Access to the Internet will soon be available in every library, school, and university - as well as millions of homes. The number of people in Britain who are connected to the service from their homes is growing at a rate of several thousand a week. With the basic cost of using the service at about £2 a week, plus local phone charges, within a year or two it will run into millions. Everyone who is connected, or has access to a library, will be able to read BN - not only in this country but all over the world.

There are thousands of companies world-wide who sell space to anyone who wants to put out their political or other ideas to be viewed by Internet users. Space can be bought instantly from any company in any country for a pound or two a week. Since anything placed on any Internet computer anywhere in the world is distributed to all the others, it makes no difference if space is bought from a US, Mexican, British, or any other company.

Patriots in the US have pioneered the use of the Internet to put over news, articles, and letters from beleaguered whites. Media censorship is completely by-passed. Why fight to get tiny quotes into the national media, within articles and programmes of unbelievable bias, when one can put out one's case at leisure to a world audience!

The BNP's Internet site is called British National Party News Service. It will gradually be developed to reflect the different medium which a television screen provides compared with a newspaper.

The party bookshop's full booklist will also soon be advertised on the Internet. Get on line for the BNP and patriotic opinion from around the world!

YOUR LETTERS

Write to: The Editor, British Nationalist, PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW

Sir:

I have just filled in, as required by law, an electoral Registration form sent to me by the North Wilts Council.

Reading it I was astonished to find that I would have the same voting rights if I were a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, anywhere in the Commonwealth, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Portugal, Spain and Sweden. All I would have to do is put my name in the appropriate area of the form.

I can't remember anyone asking me if I minded a large chunk of the rest of the world having a say in my lifestyle. So much for democracy!

I wrote a comment on the form asking what was the point of citizenship when every Tom Dick & Harry from Ireland, Commonwealth, Austria etc. etc. could vote in a British election. Does this also apply to a General Election? A frightening thought!

Surely anyone interested enough to vote on issues in Britain would gladly become a British national, and I include those with dual nationalities who ought to make a choice of where their loyalties lie.

Mr. C. Wright, Calne, Wilts

Sir:

I work as a lorry driver for a nationwide chain store. Whilst reading my copy of BN during my lunch break I obviously upset a passer-by. This brave specimen hurled abuse at the manageress for allowing me to read obscene material in the firm's truck.

Horrified at the thought of what I was reading she came to see me. On seeing my BN she actually congratulated me on my good taste! She dismissed as a foul mouthed, well dressed, trendy lefty - just the sort to take on a woman. All he had to do was knock on my window - such a pity!

Mr. J. Burns, Altrincham, Cheshire

Sir:

Reluctant as I am to pay unwanted immigrants (who didn't need any financial help to come here) to go back to their homelands, I see no alternative to some form of funded repatriation. Anyone giving the problem serious thought must agree. Horror from our enemies, who would rather bankrupt the entire Western world than abandon their multi-racial Utopia.

In recent times that fine old British gentleman Bernie Grant has espoused the same idea, which must bring a wry smile to the face of the venerable Enoch Powell, who proposed it so many years ago, and was howled down as a 'racist' for his pains.

Now along comes the EC willing to provide £700,000 for the repatriation of up to 40 Jamaican families resident in Britain or elsewhere. Another £14m. is being offered to repatriate 1000 Africans for the same purpose - at a mere £14,000 per family. (Sunday Telegraph 3 Sept.)

The scheme generally seems to be cheaper than many estimates I've seen, but there's a snag. The families must be professional, and the scheme is described as 'development' not 'repatriation'. But development for whom?

Let's see if I have it right. We should repatriate professional families, who could possibly be useful to us during their stay in Britain, but must continue to succour families with much less to offer? That's development?

Mr. R. Barden, Dewsbury Branch, British National Party

Sir:

A paper here tells how the Government have told the police that, because of a cells shortage, they may not arrest even serious criminals until they have been caught red-handed three times.

In one case a gang was observed several times breaking into containers. By the time the police arrested anyone most of the booty had gone.

Another problem here is that some immigrants have been returned to their countries with some money. This has led to more coming in the hope of cash,

OUT AND ABOUT

SURREY MEETING

Surrey BNP held a lively and well attended meeting towards the end of September. National Organiser Richard Edmonds was the main speaker. He said that if Labour win the next election Britain's present nightmare will seem like a golden age - and that the apparent intention of the Republicans in the US to promote a black president should tell white people what to expect in tomorrow's world unless they fight back.

NEW BURTON UNIT

As announced in BN recently, a new unit has now been formed in Burton-on-Trent, and may be contacted via the box number listed.

MIDLANDS SEMINAR

A joint East and West Midlands regional seminar was held in Birmingham during September - focussing on the coming general election. With John Peacock in the Chair, Keith Axon, Eddy Butler, and Richard Edmonds spoke on electoral tactics, followed by a vigorous discussion.

Richard Edmonds said that the party intended to make its mark upon the electorate with a 50 seat campaign, and that he expected the BNP's campaign - fought against a background of an abysmal and dying Tory government - to be the culmination of a phase in nationalism which had lasted for twenty years. After the election we would face a quite new situation, with new opportunities.

and if they do not get it turning to crime - egged on by the left. They cannot lose, often they are too young for prison, and if they do go to prison it is better than in Morocco, and they get help from social security while inside.

Children as young as six are seen breaking into cars, and there are stories of people eating in restaurants, then telling the waiter to call the police as they are 'eet piraten' ie they do not pay the bill. If a complaint is made they are back on the streets faster than the complainants. At the same time whole teams of police were sent in recently to find the person who spray painted a park with 'Turks go home'.

On the last day of 1994 I was mugged by six migrants in broad daylight, and was lucky not to have my head split before the 18-year old leader ran off.

I decided to make a case of it, but when the police asked what they looked like, I could only say they were wearing Moroccan youth clothing. I was told that not all Arabs look the same (which is not what I said) and my positive discrimination police man walked out.

I was angry enough to complain to a local politician. She said that prison would only be a training ground, place to make contacts and join gangs.

PR, Rotterdam, Holland

Sir:

We are told that the Japanese atrocities of the last war have never registered with succeeding generations of that country - so what of the British people - have they been informed of the graphic details apart from 'The Bridge Over The River Kwai'?

We know of the Holocaust. We are not allowed to forget it. Fifty years of film and TV coverage. Six million victims, that equates to a mile long queue every day for five years. It defies the imagination.

But hold on! I with thousands of others were deliverers of these people, so why should we be instilled with a subtle sense of guilt unless it is used for subtly working against any pretensions to nationalism in this country.

Japan remains a nationalistic country which puts up two fingers to the world. Which country won the war? Mr. J. Atkinson, Bradford, Yorks

Hanworth by-election

LATE in August the British National Party contested the by-election in the Hanworth ward of Hounslow, West London. The result in the event was not the best the party has achieved in Hounslow with just 4.4 per cent of the votes cast.

Nevertheless, the vote is important for several reasons. It establishes West London BNP as an area that will consistently fight elections as and when they come up in the same manner of East London branches. Only in this way can the party build its name as a campaigning party among the local electorate - just as was done in Tower Hamlets. Secondly, the party demonstrated that it will not be intimidated left-wing extremists.

The party took its message to this mostly white ward, and pointed out the dangers of immigration only too evident in nearby Southall and Hounslow. Disgracefully, the left-wing union, UNISON drafted in scores of its members into the area to join in the criminal antics of Trotskyites in putting out illegal leaflets.

On the Saturday before polling day, Hounslow BNP held a paper sale in Feltham quite near the ward when a mob of left-wing Labourites tried to attack them but were repelled.

Two people were later arrested. A 37 year-old woman mental health worker and a 21 year-old student were both charged. One for possession of a knife, the other an iron bar.

There was more Trotskyite trouble on the night of the count, when 150 student dregs turned up to lay siege to the Hounslow Civic Centre where the count was taking place. Seeing just 50 supporters of the candidate, Warren Glass, they started throwing missiles. As five days before, they were again put to flight while the police stood by and applauded.

Especially pleasing was the way in which the BNP's candidate, Warren Glass, was able to put the party's point of view over to the press. The Middlesex Chronical read: 'Defeated BNP candidate, Warren Glass has defended the actions of his supporters at Thursday's by-election by claiming they acted in self defence. The father of three from Heston blamed extremist protestors for the trouble which erupted outside the local Civic Centre.'

Mr. Glass said: "The week before they sent a mob to smash us off the streets. They now try to pretend they are the innocent party. I have spoken to a lot of people about what happened and some have said they were hit by missiles and had to protect themselves. I do not agree with violence personally, but sometimes you have no other course of action to take when you are being attacked."

Despite polling just over four per cent of the vote, Mr Glass was bullish about the party's showing. He added: "Our main task is to build up support which I think we are doing. We will see what happens in the future and take it as it comes."

Later, when asked about the Labour victory, Mr. Glass said, "We have got another traitor running the council who will put Asians first. We put it quite clearly and honestly where we are standing - we are putting the British people first."

Following the poll a local newspaper

Sir, The violence, in my view caused by the Anti Nazi League, yesterday evening outside the Civic Centre, before and during the count, clearly reveals that these brutes have absolutely no regard for law and order and the democratic process. The noise of this baying mob was unbearable and residents and passers-by were terrified.

For weeks prior to the Hanworth election the local shoppers endured harassment and anyone refusing leaflets was subjected to intimidation and abuse.

Letter boxes, bus stops, billboards and trees were defaced by these ANL anarchists' leaflets and graffiti.

The stench of their malevolent propaganda is quite nauseous.

We, the locals, are not prepared to accept the continuance of this unmitigated thuggery. The message to Robin Taylor is loud and clear: go back to Ealing and take your moronic mobsters and bone headed thugs with you.

You are not welcome in Hounslow. -Mrs J. Smart, Montague Road, Hounslow.

admitted to the party's National Press Officer, Michael Newland, that most local people basically agree with the BNP! The letter (above), from a local resident, which appeared after the poll in the Hounslow Times, tells the truth about the extremists and their behaviour.

Spearhead takes this opportunity to congratulate Warren Glass both for putting his points over so well and for taking the party's message to the people. Well done!

EMERGENCY APPEAL TARGET NOW £9,593.00

Last month contributions to the special emergency appeal, launched in April by the British National Party, came to £1,235.00. This still leaves £9,593.00 still to be raised. One very large donation made up the main portion of the money raised. The donor has asked for no personal acknowledgement to be sent to him. We therefore take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt thanks to him by way of this report.

The party would like to thank all those others who have sent in contributions to the appeal. There is still, however, a long way to go. For the future, all those sending in money should address it to: BNP General Fund, and post it to: c/o PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW. We draw everyone's attention to the rule that receipts are only sent for donations of £10 or over unless specifically requested, in which case an SAE would be appreciated.

(Spearhead readers - please note that an error occurred in transcribing the appeal balance in the latest issue. This will be corrected in the next edition, and apologies are offered to all readers)

New Channel Four smear programme on way to your television?

BN learns that shopkeepers in Heston were astonished, on September 25, to see actors dressed as skinheads, wearing 'BNP' T-shirts, running towards a largely Asian school near Heston Road.

They rushed into the street, thinking a riot was taking place - only to be told - yawn - Channel Four are filming something! It appears that the channel which has been condemned by every national newspaper for the filth it puts out, is up to its old tricks. They are even willing to get T-shirts printed to jazz up the deceit. Knowing Channel Four they may even try to pretend that they were filming a real event!

ANNUAL RALLY

November 11 1995

Readers should know by now that the British National Party's Annual Rally is scheduled to be held on Saturday November 11, in the afternoon. For security reasons, we are not announcing the venue here, only to say that it will be somewhere in or near the London area.

Will all those wishing to attend please note this fact carefully. This year, and until further notice, there will be no publicly advertised assembly point for those wishing to come to the rally. All those attending are advised to ensure well beforehand to link up with regional travelling groups, who will be proceeding to the rally in parties that will meet up with rally stewards at assembly points, which will be disclosed at the very last moment only to leaders of these regional groups. This is in order to minimise the possibility of disruption of the rally by political opponents.

Those aware of how to get in touch with their regional organisers should do so immediately in order to be sure that they will be advised of regional assembly points for travelling.

Those not aware should telephone the new BNP Information Line for information (0374 454893). If the telephone is not answered when they ring, they should leave their personal details, including addresses and telephone numbers (if any), and they will be contacted in due course by representatives from their regions.

What we stand for

- The establishment of a government of national unity that will put an end to nationally divisive party warfare; the return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British withdrawal from the European Community: trade with Europe where it suits us but no political ties.
- The disbanding of the multi-racial Commonwealth and its replacement by a new Commonwealth of self-governing white states.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- An end to the financial swindle that causes inflation and slump, and its replacement by a sane and fair financial system that will give the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The subordination of the power of the City to the power of Government, and the harnessing of the City to the needs of British industry.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum self-sufficiency in food; also the restoration of the fishing industry by protection of our traditional fishing grounds.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people -- the protection of our countryside and an end to the architectural disfigurement of our towns and cities.
- Tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and the sacking of 'trendy' teachers.
- An alternative defence strategy: withdrawal from NATO; closure of all foreign military and air bases in Britain; British withdrawal from the war in former Yugoslavia, where no British interest is at stake; the bringing home of British forces from Germany; the strengthening of Britain's defences and a position of armed neutrality.
- An end to overseas aid and the allocation of the money saved to the financing of repatriation and greater help for the needy at home.
- The crushing of the IRA, and the termination of the Anglo-Irish agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- A return to healthy moral values aimed at strengthening the family and community.
